

3. J. Anderson's Observations: Its central theme and construction (Masatomo Iizuka).
4. The formation process of Marx's early thought (Tadashi Shibuya).
5. The significance of the Great Men of Exile (Naoki Hashimoto).

On 9-10 July at Hiroshima University four papers were read:

1. On the economic improvement ideas in Scotland in the 1730s: Centered on P. Linsay and T. Melvill (Gentaro Seki).
2. On A. Marshall's quasi rent (Noburo Iwashita).
3. Neo-classical methodology and Keynes's methodology (Tadashi Datai).
4. 'The crisis of modern society' in J. Steuart and the formation of political economy (Nobuyoshi Kawashima).

The Tohoku Branch:

On 18 June 1988 at Yamagata University two papers were read:

1. The two editions of J.G. Eccarius's "A Working Man's Refutation of Some Points of Political Economy Endorsed and Advocated by John Stuart Mill" and new MEGA editing (Shigeru Arakawa).
2. The three origins of Marxism: Centering on Economic and Philosophic Manuscripts (Koichi Hata).

UNITED KINGDOM

The next HET conference will take place at the University of Groningen, The Netherlands, 4-6 September 1989. Prospective contributors should contact Dr Evert Schoorl, Faculty of Economics, University of Groningen, The Netherlands.

FRANCE

The Association Charles Gide pour l'Etude de la Pensée Economique will hold a conference at Strasbourg on 21-22 September 1989 on the theme "Emergence and Foundations of Equilibrium Concepts in Economics". The conference secretary is C. Schwob, Université Louis Pasteur, Faculté des Sciences Economiques et de Gestion, 4 Rue Blaise Pascal, 67070 Strasbourg CEDEX, France.

UNITED STATES

The sixteenth annual meeting of the History of Economics Society will be held on 10-14 June 1989, at the University of Richmond, Richmond, Virginia. Proposals for papers should be sent to Professor William J. Barber, Department of Economics, Wesleyan University, Middletown, Connecticut 06457, USA.

Copies of the following 53 papers presented at the History of Economics Society Conference, Toronto, June 1988 are held by the editor of the HETSA Bulletin, from whom they may be borrowed by members of HETSA:

- M.C. Howard and J.E. King, 'Russian Revisionism and the Development of Marxian Political Economy, 1890-1929'.
- Z.B. Orzech and S. Groll, 'Marx's Composition of Capital: A Critical Re-examination of Some of the Theories'.
- I. Steedman, 'P. H. Wicksteed's Jevonian Critique of Marx'.
- M.J. Gootzeit, 'Keynes' cyclic Theory of Interest'.
- A.W. Diamond Jr. and D.R. Haurin, 'Determinants of Sub-Field Change and Attrition from the American Economic Association'.
- P.J. Crabbe, 'The Literacy of the Natural Resource Economist and the Sociology of Natural Resource Economics'.
- Y. Shiozawa, 'Significance of Circularity in Sraffa'.
- A. Mayhew, 'Contrasting Origins of the Two Institutionalisms: The Social Science Context'.
- R. Griffin, 'The Veblenian Concept of Intangible Assets in Relation to Social Change'.
- J.P. Raines, 'The Social Economics of F.H. Knight'.