

Anniversaries of Economists: 1989*

The year 1989 is the

250th anniversary of	the birth of Dupont de Nemours (Sept. 14, 1739)
200th anniversary of	the birth of Friedrich List (Aug. 6, 1789) the birth of John Ramsay McCulloch (March 1, 1789) the death of Mirabeau (July 13, 1789)
150th anniversary of	the birth of Henry George (Sept. 2, 1839)
125th anniversary of	the birth of Karl Diehl (March 27, 1864) the birth of Henry Higgs (March 4, 1864) the death of Nassau Senior (June 4, 1864) the birth of Max Weber (April 21, 1864)
100th anniversary of	the birth of François Divisia (Oct. 21, 1889) the death of Eugen von Böhm-Bawerk (Aug. 27, 1914) the death of Stuart Wood (March 2, 1914)
50th anniversary of	the death of Edwin R.A. Seligman (July 18, 1939)
25th anniversary of	the death of François Divisia (Feb. 5, 1964)

The year 1989 is also the 50th anniversary of the publication of Roy Harrod's "An Essay in Dynamic Theory". In recognition of the occasion, we publish the following commemorative contribution by John Burgess.

* Information from George J. Stigler and Claire Friedland, comp., Engagement Calendar for the Year 1980-81. The Year of Economists, University of Chicago Press and the Journal of Political Economy, Chicago, 1980. (Notification of additions to this list of 1989 anniversaries would be welcomed. Ed.)